PART A - CONTRACTUAL TERMS

Any person making or intending to make an offer of the Australian Covered Bonds may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer, any Arranger or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation, in each case, in relation to such offer.

The Covered Bonds to which this Pricing Supplement relate comprise Australian Covered Bonds constituted by, and on the terms specified in the Fifth Deed Poll executed by the Issuer and dated June 26, 2023 (“Australian Deed Poll”).

The conditions set out in Attachment 1 to the Australian Deed Poll (as supplemented or modified by this Pricing Supplement) (the “Conditions”) and the programme terms set out in the Information Memorandum (as defined below) (“Programme Terms”) apply to the Australian Covered Bonds.

This document constitutes the Pricing Supplement of the Australian Covered Bonds described herein and must be read in conjunction with the Information Memorandum issued in relation to the Australian Covered Bonds and dated June 26, 2023 (“Information Memorandum”). Full information on the Issuer and the offer of the Australian Covered Bonds is only available on the basis of the combination of this Pricing Supplement and the Information Memorandum. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor is a bank or an authorised deposit taking institution authorised to carry on banking business under the Banking Act 1959 of the Commonwealth of Australia (the “Australian Banking Act”). The Australian Covered Bonds are neither “protected accounts” nor “deposit liabilities” within the meaning of the Australian Banking Act. Neither the Australian Covered Bonds nor the Covered Bond Guarantee are the obligations of any government and, in particular, neither are guaranteed by the Commonwealth of Australia. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor is supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority and an investment in the Australian Covered Bonds will not be covered by the depositor protection provisions of Section 13A of the Australian Banking Act and will not be covered by the Australian Government’s bank deposit guarantee (also commonly referred to as the Financial Claims Scheme).

None of the Information Memorandum, the Programme Prospectus or any other disclosure document in relation to the Australian Covered Bonds has been, and nor will any such document be, lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and no such document is, nor does it purport to be, a document containing disclosure to investors for the purposes of Part 6D.2 or Part 7.9 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth of Australia (the “Corporations Act”). Neither the Information Memorandum nor the Programme Prospectus is intended to be used in connection with any offer for which such disclosure is required and neither such document contains all the information that would be required by those provisions if they applied. Neither the Information Memorandum nor the Programme Prospectus is to be provided to any 'retail client' as defined in section 761G of the Corporations Act and neither such document takes into account the individual objectives, financial situation or needs of any prospective investor. In addition, neither the Financial Conduct Authority nor any other securities regulatory authority has reviewed information contained in the Information Memorandum or the Programme Prospectus in connection with the Australian Covered Bonds.

The Australian Covered Bonds and the related Covered Bond Guarantee have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act except pursuant to an exemption from or in a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Accordingly, the Australian Covered Bonds are being offered only (i) in offshore transactions to non-US persons in reliance upon Regulation S and (ii), if applicable, to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act.
