For the TD Generation:

- All-in-One, HSPA, Wi-Fi
- Portal with PINpad
- Portal 2 with PINpad

Contents

Who would use this guide?

You would use this guide if your business offers Air Miles® rewards. The information covered in this guide is exclusive to Air Miles transactions.

Air Miles

You must sign up in order to offer Air Miles to your customers. If you currently don't offer Air Miles and would like to, please contact the TD Merchant Solutions Help Desk at 1-800-363-1163.

To perform an Air Miles transaction you must select the appropriate icon to ensure that it is processed correctly. Depending upon which TD Generation terminal you are using, the Air Miles icon may appear different.

Terminal	Air Miles Icon
All-in-One, HSPA, Wi-Fi, and Portal with PINpad
Portal 2 with PINpad

Financial Transactions

The terminal can perform purchase and refund transactions.

Transactions	Explanation
Purchase	Perform a purchase and assign Air Miles
Refund	Perform a refund for a transaction that received Air Miles

- Depending how you have set up your terminal, you may be required to enter a supervisor ID and password to proceed with any transaction.
- If the customer's receipt has a signature line on it, the customer must sign it.
- Manual loyalty card number entry can be disabled to enhance your business' security. Please contact the TD Merchant Solutions Help Desk to modify these settings.

Purchase

This option is used for processing a cash purchase that will reward the customer with Air Miles. Your head office will provide you with any information regarding the Air Miles offers that you're offering, such as: base offers, multipliers and/or bonus offers.

1. Select the Air Miles icon.

2. Enter the dollar amount and select OK.

3. Select the desired payment option: Credit / Debit Card, Gift Card or Cash and select OK. You may see different payment options on your terminal due to your personalized settings.

4. Confirm the selected payment option: Back arrow or YES.

5. Select one of the following processing methods:

   a) The customer swipes their card. Go to step 6.

   or

   a) Enter the account number select OK. Go to step 6.

6. Select a base offer. This may be an optional step depending upon your business. Base offers depend upon how much money the customer spends in your business. There can be any number of offers visible. It depends on how many your business allows.

   a) Enter the net amount that the offer is to be applied to and select OK. Depending on the purchase, some, none or the entire purchase amount may be applied to Air Miles rewards. For example, at a pharmacy, Air Miles may only be applied to non-prescription purchases. You would enter the total of their non-prescription purchase as the net amount.

   b) Select the multiplier factor for the purchase. If your business offers multiple base offers you will be returned to the first base offer screen and the previously selected base offer will now have an asterisk (*) beside it. You can select another applicable base offer or select DONE to continue to the next step.

7. Enter a bonus offer code. This may be an optional step depending upon your business.

   a) Enter the bonus offer code for this offer and select OK. Bonus codes are based on a number of products purchased that have an Air Miles reward attached to them. For example, if a carton of milk earns one Air Mile, it would have a bonus offer code.

   b) Enter the quantity and select OK. If your business offers multiple bonus offer codes you will be returned to the bonus code offer screen. You can enter another applicable base offer or select OK to continue to the next step.

8. You'll see this option if your business has a manual override of the points on a bonus code offer.

   a) Enter supervisor ID and select OK.

   b) Enter supervisor password and select OK.

   c) Enter the Air Miles points to be awarded to the customer (0 to 999) and select OK.

9. The transaction is completed and the receipt prints.

Refund

This option is used for processing a cash refund that will reward the customer with Air Miles. All the information that you require for this procedure is on the receipt.
